Below is a revised constitutional compliance list in the exact format you requested.

Electoral Issue	What the Constitution Provides	Committee Action
Candidate eligibility	Only active members may nominate candidates or be nominated. A candidate must also meet the constitutional age, membership-duration, attendance, and financial requirements. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Create and use a written candidate eligibility check based strictly on the Constitution.
Active-member status	An active member must be in good standing, have dues fully paid as required, and meet the applicable quarterly-meeting attendance requirement. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Verify active-member sta before approving a candi voter.
Minimum age	A candidate for office must be at least 21 years old. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Include date of birth/age confirmation in screening
Minimum membership duration	A candidate must have been a member for at least six months. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Confirm membership sta during screening.
Candidate attendance requirement	Candidates must meet the Constitution's meeting-attendance requirements. The requirements vary depending on the candidate's length of membership. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Obtain and verify attenda records before publishing final candidate list.
Candidate presence at election	A candidate must be present at the election meeting. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Notify candidates of this requirement in advance a confirm attendance on El Day.
Financial standing	Candidate eligibility includes meeting financial requirements, and active membership requires dues to be current under the Constitution. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2 +1	Obtain financial-status verification from the appr MPU officer. Do not creat new cutoff unless authori
Voter eligibility	Eligible active members may vote in the election. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Prepare and publish a ve voter register before the election.
One vote per office	Each eligible member is entitled to one vote for each office, subject to the special Board of Directors voting rule. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Design ballots and voting controls to ensure one el vote per office.
Proxy voting	Voting by proxy is prohibited. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	State clearly in the electio guidelines that voting mu

Electoral Issue	What the Constitution Provides	Committee Action
		done personally.
Board of Directors voting	Board of Directors positions are voted on by members of the applicable LGA rather than the entire general membership. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Prepare separate eligibility/voting arrangem for Board positions, if bei contested.
Elective offices	The elected officers include President, Vice President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, Public Relations Officer/Social Secretary, Provost, and Board of Directors. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Confirm the complete offi of positions before nomin open.
Nomination procedure	Eligible contestants may submit written notification of their intention to contest a specific office. An eligible General Assembly member may also nominate an eligible member. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Use a simple written declaration/nomination fo consistent with the Const
Required nominators	The Constitution allows an eligible member to nominate another eligible member; it does not state that two nominators are required. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Do not require two nomin unless separately authori
Nomination fees	No nomination fee provision was identified in the election sections reviewed.	Do not impose nominatio unless a valid constitution properly authorized basis established.
Secret ballot	Elections of officers shall be conducted by secret ballot only. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Use a voting method that preserves ballot secrecy.
Election method / winning threshold	A candidate receiving a simple majority of votes cast shall be declared elected. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Define and document hov are counted and how sim majority will be determine
Election quorum	Election quorum is two-thirds of active members. If quorum is not met, the General Assembly may extend the sitting officers' term to the next quarterly meeting. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Determine the exact num active members and calc the required two-thirds qu before Election Day.
Election timing	Officers are elected at the last general quarterly meeting every other year. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Confirm that the planned November election aligns the required quarterly me

Electoral Issue	What the Constitution Provides	Committee Action
Term of office	Elected officers serve a two-year term. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Include term duration in t election notice and candi information.
Assumption of office	Elected officers take office in January following the November election. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Include the effective trans date in the post-election p
Term limits / reelection	The Constitution establishes limits on consecutive service and reelection to the same office. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Check prior service histor each candidate before confirming eligibility.
Multiple offices	An officer may not hold more than one elected office at the same time, though an officer may serve on a committee. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Verify whether any candi already holds another incompatible elected offic
Spousal office restriction	Husband and wife may not hold office at the same time. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Include this restriction in candidate eligibility scree
Presidential rotation	The Presidency rotates among the three LGAs—Aboh Mbaise, Ahiazu Mbaise, and Ezinihitte Mbaise—in the constitutional order. Eligibility to contest President depends on the LGA whose turn it is. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Confirm which LGA is constitutionally entitled to produce the President in before accepting preside nominations.
Failure of eligible LGA to produce presidential candidate	If the LGA whose turn it is fails to produce a presidential candidate, the opportunity passes to the next LGA, with the constitutional order subsequently resuming. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Establish the applicable presidential nomination sequence before nomina open.
Election postponement	Elections may be postponed in an emergency or exigency, subject to the procedures and limits stated in the Constitution. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Include a contingency procedure in the election consistent with the Const
Electoral Committee authority	Elections are to be presided over by an Electoral Committee appointed under the Constitution's ad hoc committee provisions. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Confirm that the current Electoral Committee appointment complies wit constitutional appointmer process.
Candidate withdrawal	No specific candidate-withdrawal procedure was identified.	Do not invent a substanti withdrawal rule without authority; agree only on a administrative procedure consistent with the Const

Electoral Issue	What the Constitution Provides	Committee Action
Tie resolution	No specific tie-vote procedure was identified.	Treat a tie as an uncover matter and follow the Constitution's process for unforeseen matters rathe assuming an automatic r
Election complaints / petitions	The Constitution contains a broader grievance and petition process involving the Executive Council and Board of Directors, but does not appear to establish a separate election-petition process. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Determine whether the g petition procedure applies election complaints befor publishing a complaint pr
Appeal authority	Under the general grievance provisions, an unsatisfied petitioner may appeal an Executive Council decision to the Board of Directors. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Do not automatically iden Board as the election app body until applicability is confirmed.
Vacancies / special elections	Vacancies in elected offices are addressed separately, including temporary appointments and subsequent elections. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Keep vacancy procedure separate from the regula November general electi process.
Campaign conduct	The Members Code of Conduct prohibits verbal/personal attacks, disruptive behavior, malicious gossip, spreading falsehood, and related misconduct. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Use these existing provis the basis for campaign co rules rather than creating unrelated sanctions.
Campaign sanctions	The Constitution contains general misconduct and disciplinary provisions, but no separate election-campaign sanction schedule was identified. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Avoid automatic candidat disqualification unless constitutionally authorize Refer serious misconduc through the proper constitutional process.
Transition / handover	Outgoing officers are required to hand over MPU properties and records to the incoming administration, including a formal handover process. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	Create a post-election ha checklist and timeline cor with the Constitution.
Unforeseen election matters	Where the Constitution does not cover an issue, Article XII provides a process for the Executive Council and General Assembly to address the matter; urgent matters may be handled temporarily by the	Refer substantive constitu gaps through the prescrib process rather than allow Electoral Committee to cr

Electoral Issue	What the Constitution Provides	Committee Action
	President with consultation and later reported. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2	new constitutional rules c own.

One additional item I would place at the very top of this table is “Constitution Version / Ratification Status.” The uploaded document is presented as a Constitution amendment/review document with proposed additions and deletions, so the Committee should first confirm that this is the latest duly ratified version before relying on the amended wording as binding. MPU Constitution Review 2023-2

Sources